

When our parents are off to work. I and my little brother play a game of kings. Where my brother is the king and I am her general. Its fun and it keeps us occupied till our parents come back from work.

Papa is an autorickshaw driver and mummy is a housemaid. They work from early morning till late at night. When they come home they are so tired that they just eat and sleep. We cannot explain in words how much we want our parents to stay at home and be with us. But, I know that if they do not work, then we would not be able to eat any food or stay in the house.

Both of us want to become a Doctor when we grow up. So we study hard and go all our homework.
